

THE BEE

AUTHORIZED AGENTS.

L. C. Moore, advertising agent

EAST WASHINGTON.
L. G. Fletcher, 182 B Street, Northeast
WEST WASHINGTON.
J. L. Turner, 1417 28 st.

Estimates of advertising furnished on application. Objectionable advertisements will not be inserted at any price. All remittances should be made by draft, postal money order, express or registered letter. Money forwarded in any other way, at the sender's risk. In sending money the amount and what it is for should be distinctly stated.

All business letters, etc., should be addressed to

THE EDITOR,
Washington D. C.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY AT
1109 I ST., N. W., WASH., D. C.

WHERE THE BEE CAN BE HAD.
Prof. J. W. Fowles, 318 3rd street, s. e.
Mrs. Polkely, s. e. Street, between 12th and Northwest.

J. H. Beller, Druggist, corner 16th and M street, Northwest.

Henry Poland's, corner 4th and Pennsylvania Avenue, Southwest.

Waddleton's Jewelry store 13th and H streets, n. w.

Northwest.
Philadelphia House, 348 Pennsylvania Ave. Northwest.

Hyson's Barber Shop, 14th and H streets, n. w.

SATURDAY, Sept. 17, 1887.

Locals.

Subscribe for the BEE.
Twenty cents per month.
It will contain all the news.

For sale by all newsdealers in the city
Our subscribers would confer a favor by leaving the amount of their subscriptions at their houses for the collector, and thus save annoyance alike to patron and collector.

NOTICE

Agents are not allowed to collect money due for advertisement unless they can produce an authentic receipt with the editor's name attached thereto. Money paid under any other circumstances, is done at the risk of advertisers. Agents can solicit advertisements, but are not allowed to collect the same without authority.

W. Calvin Chase, editor

Miss Lizzie Mason, has entered the Carlisle, Pa. college.

Mr. T. H. Trent, will leave for the city next week. He will stop in Philadelphia before his return.

Capt. A. Brooks of the Cadets will give an exhibition drill in Philadelphia today.

Mrs. Fannie McNeal has left Long Branch, N. J., for Philadelphia. She will leave the latter place this evening for her home.

There will be a Book reception Monday evening Sep. 19th, for the Lincoln Memorial Sunday School Library.

Twenty-five respectable citizens cannot be found who regret Johnson's removal and there are not five who would call a meeting to condemn the commissioners.

Miss Lizzie B. Meyers, of Albany, N. Y., arrived in the city Monday. She is the guest of her brother at 61 H st. n. e.

Persons desiring to make returns for tickets to Cooks testimonial will please report to Misses Sprague and Nalle, 1505 P st.

Mr. Amos Hill, a member of the 15th st. Presbyterian church, died at his residence Wednesday morning of consumption.

Mrs. Walter Gray one of the most pleasant ladies in the North-western section of the city, has gone to Philadelphia, Pa., to spend a week with her sister Mrs. H. Stell.

Mr. John Dade, the oldest messenger in the Supreme court, died at his residence D st. bet. 3d and 4th sts., s. e., Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. F. Murray who has spent several weeks at Saratoga, returned to the city last week. Mrs. Murray has had a pleasant time. She was accompanied home by her husband.

Prof. Krause although being boycotted by a class of men who will not work themselves, is prepared to furnish all kinds of music. Prof. Krause is an accommodating gentleman and if you want first class music give him a call.

There will be a grand harvest home and old folks concert at Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church Wednesday evening Oct. 6th, by the House hold working Club. Mrs. Mary R. Clay is president of the club and one of the most energetic ladies connected with John Wesley's Church. Admission 20 cts. child 10 cts.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

St. Paul A. M. E. church 8th bet. D. and E. streets s. w. Rev. C. W. Fitzhugh, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sabbath Sunday School, 9: a. m. J. W. Butcher Superintendent.

As the administration changes so do men. Mr. Alfred J. Hogan is the manager of a new fish and oyster market at 2026 14th st., n. w. People who want everything fresh in the way of hard and soft shell crabs, clams, &c., should visit this place. Parties, balls, hotels &c., served on the shortest notice. Don't fail to call.

I wish to inform the public that, although being boycotted by the K. of L. these last ten weeks, my Band and Orchestra are in first class condition, open to engagements, with 25 first class musicians. Parties wishing to engage music for balls, parties, Germans, &c. will find it to their advantage to consult with the undersigned before engaging music.

F. KRAUSE,
Leader Nat. Rifles Band.

Furnished rooms with board for two persons, on second floor, permanent if suited, prompt pay, apply at 1218 Mt. n. w.

L. HELMBURN.

The attention of the readers of the BEE is again called to the advertisement of their friend and accommodating merchant, Mr. Louis Heilburn, at 402 7th st. n. w. This gentleman, as the BEE stated some time ago, has been and is the colored peoples friend. In introducing the fall and winter stock of this gentleman to the public the BEE desires to say that he has the best, cheapest and most lasting in the market at a reasonable price. Call and see him and his old woman in the shoe. Carry your sisters, daughters, cousins and aunts.

AN EVENINGS PLEASURE.

Hampton, Va. Sept. 10 th. '87

A very pleasant evening was spent at Neal Cottage, Fortress Monroe by the little Neals and their many friends, Sept. 6th. The occasion being an "evening pleasure" was highly enjoyed by all present. The little folks began to assemble at five o'clock and by nine o'clock, their places were filled by older heads, after having paid due honor to the table filled with all the delicacies of the season, that had been prepared by Mrs. and Mr. Neal. The table was beautifully arranged, and reflects great credit on both the host and hostess, a highly affable couple. The children being so numerous, I shall only mention a few of the adults who were present at this favorite summer resort. On the above named evening, where so many of our Washington friends had wiled a way the summer hours. Mrs. Leveit and her niece Miss. Bulah Thompson, Mrs. Thomas, Misses Peakes, Miss Eva A. Chase Messrs Malery, Waters, and Guy.

HAMPTON CORRESPONDENT.

EAST WASHINGTON NOTES.

(J. W. Fowler, agent and correspondent, 318 3d st., s. e., where the BEE is for sale.)

A club of young men belonging to the Capital City Guard gave a picnic last Thursday evening at Proctors garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Herbert returned to the city from Pinney Point Monday.

Mr. J. C. Lancaster has returned from Deer Park.

Mr. Thomas Williams has returned from Oakland.

Among those who left Wednesday evening for Philadelphia on the excursion given by the Capital City Guard, were: Miss Josephine Finney, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson, Mrs. S. B. Hutton, Mrs. Mammie Ford and others.

Mr. Joseph McDaniel and Miss Josephine E. Over were married on Thursday Sept. at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride 424 1st st., s. e. Miss Over of Washington, D. C., and Mr. McDaniel of Virginia. The ceremony was performed by her Brother-in-law, Rev. A. J. Miller of Natchez, Miss.

Mr. John Dade, Sr., one of the oldest residents of East Washington, after a long and painful illness, departed this life eight minutes past 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning Sept. 14th. The funeral took place from Ebenezer M. E. church at 3 o'clock.

If you want to get a neat and easy shave call on Prof J. W. Fowler, 318 3rd st., s. e.

A PRESENTATION.

Mrs. Emily Monroe, one of the most energetic ladies in the United Order of True Reformers went to Petersburg, Va., last week to attend a meeting of the Grand Fountain, while there, to her surprise, Grand Worthy Master, Wm. W. Browne, presented her with a gold badge and chain. It had been sent there from this city as a token of the high esteem in which she is held by the following subordinate fountains of True Reformers in this city: Reuben, Lydia, Queen Esther, Asbury, Wesley Zion, Hager, Emanuel, Macedonia, Job, Mt. Carmel, Eliza, Levi, Palestine and Jewel. Mrs. Monroe is the Grand Worthy Mistress of True Reformers and is a lady who possesses a great deal of influence in this city among the people.

THE NEW SCHOOL BOARD.

The District Commissioners made the following order Tuesday. "Whereas it appears from the records of this office that several of the present school trustees were appointed for terms of service which have expired, and that others were appointed for indefinite terms, and that said trustees are serving as such in the manner designated; and whereas it seems best that the terms of such officers should be fixed and determinate, and that it would be best to arrange the terms of their service at this time, it is Ordered: That all of the said school trustees are hereby removed from the offices held by them, and that the following are hereby appointed members of the Board of School Trustees, to hold office from this date for the term affixed to their respective names. James W. Whelpley, for a term of one year; A. H. Witmer, for a term of one year; Louis A. Cornish, for a term of one year; John W. Ross, for a term of two years; Joseph J. Darrington for a term of three years; John R. Francis, for a term of two years; W. W. Curtis, for a term of three years; Ross A. Fish, for a term of two years; James M. Gregory, for a term of three years."

By this order Trustees Henry Johnson (colored) and Appleton P. Clark are disposed and Messrs Whelpley and Cornish appointed to fill the vacancies.

A COLORED DEMOCRAT DISCHARGED.

Robert F. McIntyre, of Albany, N. Y., and the protegee of ex-Recorder J. C. Matthews, was discharged from the office of the Recorder of Deeds last week. Mr. McIntyre was the only colored democrat in the office, and he claims that he was discharged on the recommendation of Mr. Johnson, a clerk in the office, and another colored republican, Drupree, brother-in-law of Trotter, in the Boston Post office. Mr. McIntyre says that Mr. Henry Johnson, a colored republican, is really the Recorder of Deeds. McIntyre was one of the most earnest workers for the election of President Cleveland in the canvass of 1884. Much surprise is manifested on the part of ex-Recorder Matthews' friends, that Loguen and McIntyre, the only colored friends of the administration, should be discharged from the Recorder's office at the instance of republicans. It is said that Recorder Trotter was compelled to make these discharges to liquidate an indebtedness on a note brought against him by Mr. Matthews, and that Matthews was forcing payment.

There are other matters which may be developed in a few days, which may operate favorably to Mr. Trotter. It is said that neither Johnson or Drupree had anything to do with the discharge, but Mr. Trotter was compelled to reduce his force to enable him to pay off a note that he (Trotter) gave to Mr. Matthews to the amount of $2000 for furniture and repairs, that Matthews claimed that he put in the office, which Recorder Trotter has obligated himself to pay.

THE BAPTIST S. S. UNION.

OFFICERS INSTALLED. THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Notwithstanding the rain last Sabbath afternoon, quite a large crowd assembled at the Liberty Baptist Church, corner of 18th and E streets, n. w., the occasion being the installment of officers of the Baptist Sunday School Union. School trustee Lewis A. Cornish, made the installation address, which was instructive to those who intend to administer the affairs of the Baptist Sunday School Union. The following officers were installed: Alexander Hamilton, President; 1st vice president, Rev. A. S. Thomas; 2nd vice president Stephen Johnson, Miss M. E. Pryor, recording sec'y; C. E. Brown, corresponding sec'y; and Rev. W. J. Howard, treasurer. After Mr. Cornish had delivered his address, the president, Mr. Hamilton, among other things said, that he thanked the Union for having reelected him, and that he had nothing against those who opposed and voted against his reelection; that he was a servant of God and the people, and he would do all in his power to bring the Union upon a sure and substantial foundation. At the conclusion of his address he introduced Mrs. Williams, a missionary and temperance advocate, who advised all present to use their influence with those who signed liquor licenses. Mr. Maxwell, of the 2nd Baptist Church, congratulated Mrs. Williams and said, that she had done great good in his section of the city. Mr. W. Calvin Chase, of the BEE, was next introduced. He made a brief review of the work the Union had done and was doing in the community, and assured those present that opposition sometimes demonstrated the kind of metal that was in a person; opposition said he, often made small men great and great men small. Mr. Ricks, of the "Advocate" was called upon to speak, but he declined on account of the lateness of the hour. The President announced the following committees.

Executive Board for the year Sept. '87 to Aug. '88: J. B. Miller, Rev. A. S. Thomas, C. E. Braxton, Aquilla Sayles, Emma McCall, Cornelius Williams, M. E. Pryor, and A. Hamilton.

Visiting committee for the year commencing Sept. '87, ending Aug. '87: A. H. Callette, Miss L. A. Rose, J. A. Taylor, J. C. Smith, Miss S. A. Slaughter, J. H. McDowell, Miss Cuetta Shepard, Janie Pollard, Lula Gar-nette, Rev. W. H. Scott, Ida E. White, Mary Jackson, M. Thompson, Winfield Duffield, E. S. Harris, J. L. Howard, Miss Ella Jones, T. K. Richardson, Samuel Grantlin, Mrs. Isiah Lewis, chairman.

Auditing committee for the year Sept. '86 to Aug. '87: C. W. Davis, W. O. Holmes, Prof. W. B. Johnson, Chairman.

The receipts during the year Sept. '86 to Aug. '87:

Expenditures	$178.37
Balance	" 102.45
	$ 75.92.

IN MEMORIAM.

ALMA LEAVENS BANKS,

Who departed this life Saturday, September 8d, 1887, Mobile, Ala., in the thirty-third year of her age, was born July 22, 1855, the fifth offspring of Thomas and Francis Leavens, who was one of the first and most highly respected families of Mobile, Ala.

God, in His wise providence, saw fit to call the mother Home to rest ere Alma had reached the age of eight years, and in a few short years thereafter the father was stricken down with a terrible malady and he too succumbed to the grim monster, death, leaving Alma, Fanny and Frank, sister and brother, orphans, upon the cold charities of an unfriendly world.

Here they commenced the journey of life through childhood together without the tender care of either parent, keeping steadily in the path of rectitude and clinging to each other until they reached their maturity.

Alma attended school and received only a limited education, enough however, coupled with her practical experience, amiable disposition, and her love for virtue, to fit her admirably for the duties which she was called upon afterwards to perform in the relation of wife and mother and which she always discharged cheerfully and conscientiously.

At the age of 21 she went to New Orleans, La., to live with her eldest sister Mary Louise Moss, here she married in New Orleans and returned to their home in Mobile, where they have lived happily together up to the moment she died.

Their union were blessed with seven children, three boys, and four girls, Willis, Alma, Luella and Clarence, are in Heaven, Lillie, Fanny and Louis are left with their father to mourn their mother's loss.

Mrs. Banks professed religion

October 19th, 1886, joined Zion A. M. E. Church and linked her self with Class No. 2 and remained a steadfast member and a true believer in the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, until she closed her eyes in death.

She was very popular in her church, loved by pastor, leader and members.

She was kind, gentle and true sociable, generous and charitable. These traits of character endeared her.

"In the rainbow smile of her gentle spirit a light that grows brighter in adversity, comfort and happiness could always be formed."

But the ennobling and refining attributes of her soul laid in her faithfulness, faithful in friendship, faithful in morals, faithful in love and finally faithful to her God.

In her a devoted and endearing sister, a kind and loving mother, and a true and affectionate wife has gone to a world unknown.

Gone to join the Heavenly band,
On Canaan's fair and happy shore,
Just across the river in "Bosha Land,"
Where parting will be no more.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The complimentary testimonial concert to Master Wm. Cook, at the Congregational church last Wednesday evening, was in every particular a success. The very best citizens turned out as an evidence of their appreciation for the young man. Mr. Cook was introduced to the audience by Recorder J. M. Trotter, who said that it was not customary to select one particular artist and introduce him, but there were circumstances connected with Mr. Cook, that made it necessary to make the discrimination. Mr. Cook was the great centre of attraction and his executions on the violin were excellent with but a few exceptions.

The young man has a bright future before him, and should he take up his studies at Berlin the BEE bespeaks for him success. The organ solo by Prof. Bischoff, was well received. The solo by Mrs. Leua McKinney, "So Gaily So Brightly," was not rendered with that sweetness and force as on former occasions. The Ophagus Glee club under the leadership of Prof. J. T. Layton won new laurels last Wednesday evening. The renditions by this club were surprising which assured the audience that the members were improving. Mrs. Sallie Waring, in Lieti Liguor (Les Huguenots) carried the house by storm. Mrs. Waring is a rising vocalist. She sings with ease force and sweetness. Miss Martina Bruce, who but a few months made her debut before the social circle, is taking the place of the old vocal talent and in a short time she will be a favorite prima dona.

Miss Alice Strange was the accompanist, and as usual she presided with dignity and grace.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

The John Wesley church has been crowded to its utmost capacity for three evenings. The occasion was a prize concert under the direction of Mr. A. Lincoln Meyers. The first and third evenings were particularly for the young children. The second night the program was made up of some of the popular local vocalists. The opening chorus on the second evening was conducted by Mr. H. C. Turley, one of the most popular young vocalists in this city. The duett, Hope Beyond, was sung by Miss Arnita Joy and A. L. Meyers. The rendition of this piece was good. Mr. Meyers is quite a vocalist, and his stately appearance and modesty greatly adds to his singing. Mr. A. J. Hall's, Irene good night, was enthusiastically applauded. The solo and chorus lead by Mr. Meyers, "I am King O'er Land and Sea," was sung with much sweetness. The Old Turn Key, by Mr. Turley, a solo, was rendered well. On the evening these vocalists appeared it was impossible to get standing room in the church. The recitation by Miss Jennie Chichester, was one of the features of the last evening. This lady has a sweet voice and a fine delivery. The success of the concert is due to Messrs Meyers, Bowie and Miss Chichester.

ALYON & HEALY
State & Monroe Sts., Chicago.
Will send prepaid in any address their
BAND CATALOGUE,
for 1000, 200 pages, full description of instruments, Saxes, Corns, Bells,
Drummers, Flutes, Clarinets,
Saxophones, Brass Bands, and Horns, and many other instruments, and also include instructions in a few pages for Amateur Bands.
Agents WANTED for DR. SCOTT'S
Sample free to those becoming agents.
No risk, quick sales. Territory given.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Address
DR. SCOTT, 347 Broadway, NEW YORK.